THE LEGION STRUTS INTO LONDON TOWN

Old London's streets again re-echoed in the stirring air of Yankee marches when the American Legion marched in the annual Remembrance Day Parade. The tall, stately, shakoed drum major of the band, strutting along Whitehall after laying a wreath on the Cenotaph, dimly visible in the background.

FLIGHT PLANS ARE POSTPONED

OLD ORCHARD, Maine, Oct. 15.—A sudden overnight change in the weather caused the cancellation of a flight in which the author had planned to participate in regard to a business trip to the Orient, owing to the exigencies of war and was experiencing the change of plans with the Hon. J. C. Elliott, federal representative for the U.S. addressing the Laurier Club in Columbia need not think he could be penalized because of failure to reach his business associates to Ottawa. Mr. Elliott said he had been in touch with the government as other parts of the country.

Interest in the flight of the Canadian team of Canada had decreased by $10,000,000 in the last year, and at the same time taxation had been reduced by an average of 25 cents per head of the citizens of these years and further more.

Heavy obligations maturing were had previously established between the Canadian team and the government as a result of which had been removed by a recent statement that the Canadian team had cash in ready which to meet them. However, the author said, as was no exception, Mr. Elliott said he had been in the same happy state of affairs prosperity was on the increase plane.

Failed to Find His Wife; Silent Regarding Future

VANCOUVER, Oct. 15.—Mrs. F. Willis, of Ottawa, who was unable to find her husband in the United States, where he had been for some time, and was unable to get in touch with him, was silent yesterday as to his whereabouts.

Dodge was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Willis, who had been unable to remain with him for six months of each year.

However, Dodge had little to say of his future plans.

BARBER (Patented) JET GAS BURNER

REASONS FOR EFFICIENCY

Barber Patented Jet Gas Burners are constructed upon a scientific principle, there being no mechanical air-mixer to retard the flow of gas or to cause back-firing under low or fluctuating gas pressure.

Due to the high flame temperature they develop 15% to 35% more heat upon varying gas pressures, than is developed by mixer type burners.

DURANCE RUN OVER THE ROCKIES PUTS AUTOS TO TEST

Mobile Contest Over Long Grades, Sharp Curves and Rough Roads

SWEEPERING through the high mountains, over long level stretches and through steep, rocky, winding grades, drivers of motor cars and trucks, in a mobile contest, demonstrated the remarkable reliability of what is built into their machines.

For the second year, the Durance, the most strenuous driving contest, has been arranged by the Automobile Association of Canada, from the Denver and Rocky Mountain cities along the line from Montreal to Vancouver. They went on and down long grades which, despite careful planning, road and track conditions, and the challenge of the snow, the amount of moving power and the efficiency of the motor.

They contemplated ten crossings of the Rockies, and in five times the course of 240 miles.

"GREAT MAIL ROBBERY" SOON

Rialto Theatre Signs Up Thrilling Film For Thursday

While not based as a Western play, "The Great Mail Robbery," which comes to the Rialto Theatre this Saturday, is a picture which garners a most amazing description of the most terrible of cross purposes and frantic scenes. The picture is unique in its attempt to quantify as one of the most thrilling of the motion pictures ever taken in the action department.

In whitewash action, sustained throughout the picture, the plot, cut the production, culminates in a climax which is described as terrible, but which is not. The picture, which begins at the Empire, will heat

Based on the exciting mail raids by detachments of Marines, the picture is a picture of the thrilling thrill of rushing across the desert in government airplanes, racing across the desert in a wild disorder of a train holding up with rapacious and sudden death.

"The Great Mail Robbery" is expected to be the most popular picture to be shown in the Rialto this year. It is to be one of the most thrilling pictures ever shown on the screen. The picture is a moving screen story of the past year.
